To the Teacher: The above-named student is applying to the Lewis & Clark College Templeton Scholars Program. The Program was created to provide opportunities for gifted high school students from the greater Portland area to undertake advanced study. Qualified students who seek a challenging academic experience beyond the offerings of their high school curriculum may enroll in one course per semester at the College.

We are interested in your assessment of this student's potential for success in college-level studies. Please use the reverse side of this form to describe the nature of the course you taught the student, list the grade that s/he received and comment on her/his academic ability, motivation, intellectual maturity, and study skills.

We appreciate your assistance in this process. Please return your evaluation to:
