Tuition is $ 1,160.00 per credit hour for law students or for those auditing who are seeking an auditing certificate for the class. Tuition is $580.00 per credit hour for alumni auditors. Tuition for government or non-profit auditors who are not seeking an auditing certificate is $290.00 per credit hour.

Summer school financial aid is available for Lewis and Clark law students. Students should apply for summer financial aid as soon as possible in the Spring semester. Special rules apply to the distribution of summer school aid. Lewis & Clark students should contact:

Diana Meyer
Assistant Director of Student Financial Services
Lewis & Clark College
(503)768-7097 or meyer@lclark.edu

Visiting law students should apply for financial aid through their home institutions. No financial aid is available for auditing students.

Auditing Attorneys and others interested in summer courses may audit a course if there is space available and the instructor consents. A bachelor's degree is required to audit. Auditors who wish to receive a certificate of course completion must pass the final exam. A student may also audit a course without taking the final exam. Those auditors who do not take the final exam do not receive a certificate. They are deemed "non-certificate" students and pay less tuition for the course. CLE credit may be available for attorneys who audit a course. In no case will a transcript be issued for auditors, or credit awarded for use in any degree program.
